

CelebrateRecovery®

The Landing is a safe place where teenagers can find help, hope, and healing, learn to break cycles of dysfunction, and obtain tools that can help them live free and healthy lives.

To encourage a family approach to recovery, discussions and activities at The Landing focus on the same topics being addressed in that night's adult small groups.